

suffice to... with the Eyes
 of Argus... public Wealth.
 Wherefore... these Eyes... took place in the Times... abundant Youth, ... the greater Part of... here represented... appeared from the Stage of this World, and become Tributary to the Gales; nevertheless, for... Silence shall surround their Names that is... their Fame... the same... observe... indicating the...
 Nor let my one... that this will be an...
 Story, and Deformity of this my unpolished... least... not such... Crude be a person...
 Request for as to Man versed in the Studies of Philosophy... will see... that there is Nothing wanting to the...
 of... narrative. For... each as a... den... the... Names are Not...
 Accidents...

—But when I shall have under... of transcribing this history from this...
 autograph, and shall have brought it... will any one be found to endure the fatigue of reading...

This doubtful reflection, originating in the endeavor to decipher a great blot which came after Accidents, brought my...
 to a standstill, and made me reflect more seriously upon... to be done. It is quite true, said I to myself... manuscript, it is very true, this hails... of speech, does not continue...
 The good man, after the first...
 to make a little...
 to narrate...

FH
 13/20

